ANGLOGOLD ASHANTI ANNOUNCES BOARD APPOINTMENT

AngloGold Ashanti is pleased to announce the appointment of Mr Ferdinand (Fred) Ohene-Kena to its Board of Directors with effect from 1 June 2010.

Fred Ohene-Kena (MSc Engineering; DIC and ACSM), is the former Ghanaian Minister of Mines and Energy and is currently a member of the Ghana Judicial Council, is the Chairman of the Ghana Minerals Commission and is a member of the President’s Economic Advisory Council.

Russell Edey, Chairman of the Board of Directors, commented: “Mr Ohene-Kena has had a long association with Ashanti, having served as a member of the Board of Ashanti Goldfields, prior to its merger with AngloGold. He currently serves on AngloGold Ashanti’s subsidiary companies in Ghana and Guinea. We welcome Mr Ohene-Kena to our board and look forward to the contribution that he will doubtless make to the success and sound governance of AngloGold Ashanti”.

Certain statements made in this communication, including, without limitation, those concerning AngloGold Ashanti’s strategy to reduce its gold hedging position including the extent and effects of the reduction, the economic outlook for the gold mining industry, expectations regarding gold prices, production, cash costs and other operating results, growth prospects and outlook of AngloGold Ashanti’s operations, individually or in the aggregate, including the completion and commencement of commercial operations of certain of AngloGold Ashanti’s exploration and production projects, the resumption of production at AngloGold Ashanti’s mines in Ghana, the completion of announced mergers and acquisitions transactions, AngloGold Ashanti’s liquidity and capital resources, and expenditure and the outcome and consequences of any litigation proceedings or environmental issues, contain certain forward-looking statements regarding AngloGold Ashanti’s operations, economic performance and financial condition. Although AngloGold Ashanti believes that the expectations reflected in such forward-looking statements are reasonable, no assurance can be given that such expectations will prove to have been correct. Accordingly, results could differ materially from those set out in the forward-looking statements as a result of, among other factors, changes in economic and market conditions, success of business and operating initiatives, changes in the regulatory environment and other government actions including environmental approvals and actions, fluctuations in gold prices and exchange rates, and business and operational risk management. For a discussion of certain of these factors, refer to AngloGold Ashanti’s annual report for the year ended 31 December 2009, which was distributed to shareholders on 30 March 2010. The company's annual report on Form 20-F, was filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission in the United States on April 19, 2010. AngloGold Ashanti undertakes no obligation to update publicly or release any revisions to these forward-looking statements to reflect events or circumstances after today’s date or to reflect the occurrence of unanticipated events. All subsequent written or oral forward-looking statements attributable to AngloGold Ashanti or any person acting on its behalf are qualified by the cautionary statements herein.
