Strategy

To build a leading emerging markets financial services organisation using all our competitive advantages to the full

We focus on delivering superior sustainable shareholder value by serving the needs of our customers and where appropriate connecting them globally

The key differentiator in achieving our strategy is our people

Trends shaping the global economy

3

1. Financial markets and the world economy are globalising

We are connecting our platforms to participate in global capital and investment flows

2. Emerging markets are growing faster than the developed world

Our strategy incorporates faster growing emerging markets, as apposed to the more mature developed markets

3. Trade flows increasing exponentially reflecting the impact of globalisation

We are connecting our platforms to optimise the opportunities presented by increasing trade flows

4. High population growth and per capita increase in wealth in emerging markets

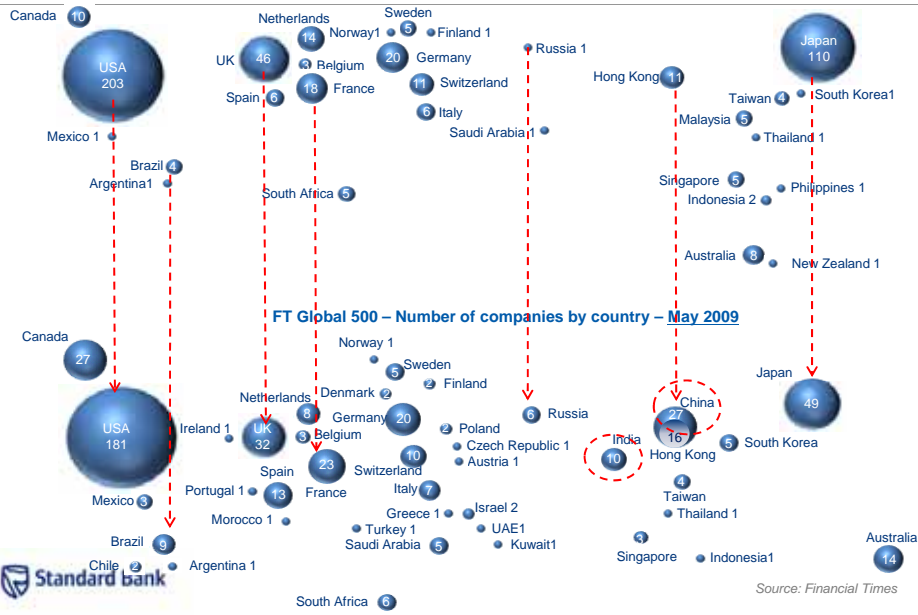

Population growth as well as the per capita increase in wealth in emerging markets, provides an opportunity for us to leverage our Wealth Management and Personal and Business Banking business and capture the synergistic benefits between our three business units

South Africa	High	Medium
Rest of Africa	Medium / High	High
Outside of Africa	Low	High

Why we can compete in emerging markets

8

- We have a unique African footprint
- South Africa is an emerging market with well developed, leading edge and highly competitive financial markets. We have a successful business with exportable and replicable
 - Products and solutions
 - Risk and capital management practices
- High service ethic in dealing with customers underscored by independent surveys
- We understand the needs of both international customers where connectivity is critical; and local customers, where product and service offering benefit from scale advantages and local knowledge
- Our commitment to emerging markets attract quality people in the major financial centres who want to be involved and work in emerging markets, augmenting a strong pool of skills we already have in the various domestic markets.
- Our shareholders are emerging market investors

Why we can compete in emerging markets continued

- Our strategic relationship with ICBC provides us with one of the strongest partners in the future global superpower economy, with a keen desire to participate inter alia in the next phase of development on the African continent
- Life Insurance model that can be exported, and particularly relevant in growing populations and per capita increase in wealth in most developing markets
- Track record in building some businesses on a global scale as evidenced by our Commodities and Resources business
- Proven community relevance particularly given the complex socio-economic environment of South Africa
- Experience in taking banking to the unbanked, which is a key requirement in most emerging markets battling with the eradication of poverty
- Successful track record in growing businesses organically in new markets and geographies
- Proven experience in making and integrating acquisitions in foreign markets as evidenced by Argentina, Nigeria and Kenya in recent times

Business Model and Connectivity

11

Why is this important?

- Diversification of revenue and risk
- Flexibility with which to enter new markets
- Improve efficiency by leveraging infrastructure and skills globally with increased speed of implementation / integration
- Capture and leverage client relationships with appropriate global connectivity
- Optimise the use of capital

Competitive landscape

17

Large local banks

- Some are now becoming regional players and expanding footprint
- Well capitalised with significant market shares
- Provide significant competition by virtue of their
 - Low cost of funds, expansive distribution networks, good government relationships, strong ties with top local corporates and increasing product sophistication
- Less competitive in
 - Treasury, Debt Capital Markets, Project Finance and Structured Trade

Multi-national banks

- Multi-national banks
- StanChart, Barclays and Citi
- Focus on multi-national corporates, governments, top local corporates, high end retail and business banking
- All have slightly different core capabilities but focus on treasury, trade and transactional banking
- Increasingly concentrating on big ticket investment banking
- Africa may not be considered to be core to their global strategy
- Nigeria is a noteworthy exception where all have expressed an intention to grow their presence
