

Bidvest Wins IAS Award as Best Corporate Communicator in Industrial Services

Wednesday, 21 June 2006

At a gala function in Sandton on Wednesday, June 21 2006, Bidvest was announced the winner of the Investment Analysts Society award for the best reporting and corporate communication in the industrial services sector for the second consecutive year.

The Investment Analysts Society represents professional investment analysts, research advisers and portfolio managers in southern Africa.

The IAS awards are judged on the quality of the annual report, the chairman's statement, interim and other reports, investor relations, and the content of the company's website.