CIRCULAR TO SHAREHOLDERS

1. INTRODUCTION AND PURPOSE OF THIS CIRCULAR

The Directors are proposing that:

- the Company creates 10 000 000 (ten million) Preference Shares;
- the Company amend its MOI to reflect the new authorised share capital and to record the rights, restrictions and privileges attached to the Preference Shares; and
- in terms of the MOI, the Shareholders provide the requisite authority to issue and list on the JSE up to 10 000 000 (ten million) Preference Shares over a period of up to 18 (eighteen) months from the date of filing of the amendments to the MOI in terms of this Circular, subject to regulatory requirements during this period.

The purpose of this Circular is to furnish Shareholders with information relating to the proposed resolutions, in accordance with the Listings Requirements and the Companies Act, and to convene a General Meeting at which Shareholders will be requested to approve the proposed resolutions contained in the Notice of General Meeting attached to and forming part of this Circular.

2. CREATION OF THE PREFERENCE SHARES

2.1 Rationale

Transaction Capital is considering raising additional capital for future investment purposes. The proposed new class of capital will:

- be cost-efficient permanent capital;
- further strengthen the Company's existing capital base; and
- be non-dilutionary for Ordinary Shareholders.

The form of capital raising being proposed is listed Preference Shares, to be issued over a period of 18 (eighteen) months for a maximum number of 10 000 000 (ten million) Preference Shares. It is the intention of Transaction Capital to target new investors for purposes of the Preference Share Issue Programme.

The Subscription Price for the initial issue will be R100,00 (one hundred Rand). Any authorised, unissued Preference Shares that have not been issued in terms of the initial issue shall be issued by the Company as and when opportune, at an issue price to be determined by the Directors, subject to a maximum of 10 000 000 (ten million) Preference Shares.

The terms and conditions of the Preference Shares and comparable preference share issues by other companies have been carefully considered by the Board. The Board believes that the terms and conditions of the Preference Shares are market-related. This ensures that the benefits listed above should be achieved by the capital raising.

The terms and conditions of the Preference Share Issue Programme mean that anyone who acquires Preference Shares pursuant to such programme shall not have pre-emption rights on issues of additional shares during the course of the Preference Share Issue Programme.

Bearing in mind the benefits that should arise from carrying out the capital-raising, the Board has concluded that the issue of the Preference Shares on the terms and conditions proposed is in the interests of the Company and that the Shareholders be asked to approve the resolutions set out below.

2.2 Salient terms of the Preference Shares

The Preference Shares are cumulative, non-participating no par value Preference Shares. The initial issue of up to 10 000 000 (ten million) Preference Shares shall be at a Subscription Price of ZAR100,00 (one hundred South African Rand) (the "Deemed Subscription Price"). Thereafter, the Directors are entitled to issue all or some of the authorised but unissued Preference Shares (i.e. any of the 10 000 000 (ten million) Preference Shares which are not subscribed for during the initial issue) as and when opportune, at a Subscription Price determined by the Directors.

Transaction Capital will apply for a listing of the Preference Shares on the JSE.

The full terms of the Preference Shares are set out in Annexure 1 to the Circular. The summary set out below is not conclusive or exhaustive, and potential investors should refer to Annexure 1 for full particulars.

In the case of any divergences between this summary and the full terms as contained in the aforementioned Annexure 1, the latter shall prevail.

1. Entitlements to Dividends

Dividends are payable twice a year on a date which is the earlier of:

- 5 (five) Business Days prior to the date on which Transaction Capital makes any Distribution in respect of the Ordinary Shares; or
- 90 (ninety) calendar days after the applicable Calculation Date.

For each Dividend Period, each Holder of each Preference Share shall be entitled to a dividend in an amount equal to the aggregate of the amounts calculated in respect of each day during that Dividend Period in accordance with the following formula:

$$a = [(b + c) \times d] \div 365$$

In which formula:

- a = the amount for the applicable day;
- b = the Deemed Subscription Price;
- c = the Accumulated Dividends in respect of that Preference Share at 17:00, Johannesburg time, on the calendar day immediately preceding the applicable day; and
- d = if a Dividend Default (i) has not occurred, the Dividend Rate; or (ii) has occurred, the Default Dividend Rate.

2. Ordinary Share distributions

The Company shall make Distributions in terms of the Company's share incentive schemes or other similar agreements with employees of the Group;

The Company shall furthermore be entitled to make Distributions in respect of its Ordinary Shares but must first ensure that all arrear Accumulated Dividends (if any) up to the last day of the last Dividend Period which occurs prior to the date on which the Company makes that Distribution, are first settled.

3. Adjustment Event

Tax Change Event: the Company shall pay, in respect of the Outstanding Preference Shares, Dividends at a rate adjusted in accordance with the provisions and formulae set out in clause 40.3.7 of the Preference Share Terms, if as a result of any amendment in the Income Tax Act (including, without limitation, the replacement of the Income Tax Act with different legislation), which occurs after the date on which the Preference Share Terms are incorporated into the MOI, the Scheduled Dividends become subject to any SA Tax, other than the dividends Tax or any other withholding Tax imposed under any law of South Africa, in the hands of all the SA Corporates only who are Resident Beneficiaries of any Outstanding Preference Shares.

Rate Event: if as a result of an increase in the Dividends Tax Rate above 15% (fifteen per cent) (which is the rate at which the Dividends Tax was levied on the date on which the Preference Share Terms are incorporated into the MOI) then the Dividend Rate or the Default Dividend Rate, as the case may be, shall be adjusted to such a percentage of the Prime Rate, in accordance with the provisions and formula set out in clause 40.3.8 of the Preference Share Terms.

Post the Tax Change Event and/or the Rate Event occurring, the Company will be entitled to voluntarily redeem the Outstanding Preference Shares at the Redemption Amount.

4. Voting Rights

The Holders of the Preference Shares shall have the right to receive notice of and to be present (either in person or by proxy) at any general meeting of the Company, but shall not be entitled to vote at any such general meeting, save in circumstances:

- contemplated in clause 7.3 of the MOI; and/or
- where any Scheduled Dividend or any part thereof has been declared but that has not been paid on the applicable Dividend Payment Date.

At every general meeting of the Company at which the Holders of Preference Shares as well as other classes of Shares are present and entitled to vote, a Holder of a Preference Share shall be entitled to the lower of:

- that proportion of the total votes in the Company which the aggregate Deemed Subscription Price of the Preference Shares held by that Holder bear to the aggregate amount of the share capital and/or stated capital of the Company; and
- that fraction per Preference Share held by such Holder such that the aggregate of all of the votes of all of the Preference Shares in the issued share capital of the Company are less than 24.99% (twenty five per cent) of the aggregate of all votes held by all Shareholders entitled to vote at such meeting.

In accordance with clause 7.3 of the MOI and subject to the Listings Requirements, any amendment to the MOI relating to the variation of any preferences, rights, limitations and other terms attaching to the Preference Shares, must not be implemented without a Special Resolution taken by the Holders of the Preference Shares at a separate meeting. In such instances, the Holders of the Preference Shares shall also be allowed to vote at the meeting of Shareholders subject to clause 40.6.2 of the MOI. No resolution of Shareholders of the Company shall be proposed or passed, unless a Special Resolution of the Holders of the Preference Shares, have approved the amendment.

In addition to the above and for the avoidance of doubt, for so long as the Preference Shares are listed on the JSE, no further securities ranking in priority to, or pari passu with, the existing Preference Shares, of any class, shall be created without a special resolution passed at a separate general meeting of the Holders.

5. Ranking and liquidation

The Preference Shares will rank in priority to the Transaction Capital Shares with regard to dividends and repayment of capital on the winding-up of the Company. All the Preference Shares form part of the same class of share and all Preference Shares for which listing will be applied, will rank pari passu in respect of all rights.

Each Preference Share shall confer upon its Holder (for onward payment to the relevant Beneficiary in accordance with the agreement between the Holder and Beneficiary) the right of a return of capital on liquidation of the company of an amount equal to the Redemption Amount of that Preference Share calculated up to the day on which that return of capital is paid.

6. Redemption

All (but not some) of the Outstanding Preference Shares may be redeemed at the option of the Company, subject to compliance with the Companies Act, in any of the following circumstances:

- an Adjustment Event occurs and, as a result of such Adjustment Event the Applicable Rates are increased; or
- a Regulatory Event occurs and, as a result of such occurrence, the continued compliance by the Company with clause 40 of the MOI becomes more costly for the Company or any of its Shareholders; or

EXPLANATION AND EFFECT OF SPECIAL RESOLUTION NUMBER 1

The explanation for special resolution number 1 is to increase the authorised share capital of the Company and to incorporate the terms and Preference Shares in the Company's MOI.

The effect of special resolution number 1 is to create 10 000 000 (ten million) Preference Shares and incorporate the preferences, rights, limitations and other terms of the Preference Shares into the Company's MOI.

SPECIAL RESOLUTION NUMBER 2

"RESOLVED AS A SPECIAL RESOLUTION THAT, the Preference Shares which are detailed in special resolution 1 above, and/or options and/or any other rights exercisable for Preference Shares, are hereby authorised to be issued to Directors, future Directors, prescribed officers or future prescribed officers of the Company and to persons related or inter-related to the Company, or to a Director or prescribed officer of the Company, and/or to nominees of such persons on the terms and conditions and at the issue prices as determined in accordance with the rights, restrictions and privileges attaching thereto as set out in Annexure 1."

EXPLANATION AND EFFECT OF SPECIAL RESOLUTION NUMBER 2

The explanation for special resolution number 2 is to obtain approval from Shareholders in terms of section 41(1) or the Companies Act to enable the Company to issue Preference Shares and grant options to Directors, future Directors, prescribed officers and future prescribed officers and persons related or inter-related to the Company or to Directors or prescribed officers of the Company or nominees thereof.

The effect of special resolution number 2 is that the Company will, if this resolution is adopted, have the necessary authority to issue such Preference Shares and grant such options to such Directors and prescribed officers.

ORDINARY RESOLUTION NUMBER 1

"RESOLVED AS AN ORDINARY RESOLUTION THAT, subject to the adoption and filing of special resolution number 1, and as required by and subject to the Company's MOI, and subject to the provisions of the Companies Act and the Listings Requirements, each as presently constituted and as amended from time to time, the Directors are authorised, as they in their discretion deem fit, to grant options in respect of and/or allot and issue up to 10 000 000 (ten million) Preference Shares in total from the authorised but unissued Preference Shares in the share capital of the Company, such authority to endure for eighteen months from the date of filing of the amendments to the MOI, incorporating the terms of the Preference Shares as contemplated in special resolution number 1 above.”

EXPLANATION AND EFFECT OF ORDINARY RESOLUTION NUMBER 1

The explanation for ordinary resolution number 1 is that in terms of clauses 8.2.2 and 8.3 of the Company's MOI, read with the Listings Requirements, the Directors shall not have the power to allot or issue the Preference Shares without the prior approval of an ordinary resolution and provided such issue has been approved by the JSE. This authority will be subject to the Companies Act and the Listings Requirements respectively.

The effect of ordinary resolution number 1 is to ensure that the Directors have the necessary flexibility to allot and issue the Preference Shares as they deem fit for a period of eighteen months from the date of filing the amendments to the MOI.

“Resolved that any Director of the Company or the Company Secretary, all with the power of substitution, be and is hereby authorised to carry out and to do all such things and matters as may be or are necessary in connection with the above aforesaid resolutions including without limitation being authorised to make, amend and sign all and any such necessary documents, letters, applications, announcements and affidavits as may be required for purposes of and in connection with the resolutions and including Companies and Intellectual Property Commission forms that are required.”

EXPLANATION AND EFFECT OF ORDINARY RESOLUTION NUMBER 2

Ordinary resolution number 2 grants authority to any Director or the Company Secretary to carry out and do all such things as may be necessary in connection with ordinary and special resolutions above.

SECTION 164 OF THE COMPANIES ACT, NO. 71 OF 2008 AS AMENDED

“164. Dissenting shareholders appraisal rights:

- (1) This section does not apply in any circumstances relating to a transaction, agreement or offer pursuant to a business rescue plan that was approved by shareholders of a company, in terms of section 152.
- (2) If a company has given notice to shareholders of a meeting to consider adopting a resolution to:
 - (a) amend its Memorandum of Incorporation by altering the preferences, rights, limitations or other terms of any class of its shares in any manner materially adverse to the rights or interests of holders of that class of shares, as contemplated in section 37 (8); or
 - (b) enter into a transaction contemplated in section 112, 113, or 114, that notice must include a statement informing shareholders of their rights under this section.
- (3) At any time before a resolution referred to in subsection (2) is to be voted on, a dissenting shareholder may give the company a written notice objecting to the resolution.
- (4) Within 10 business days after a company has adopted a resolution contemplated in this section, the company must send a notice that the resolution has been adopted to each shareholder who:
 - (a) gave the company a written notice of objection in terms of subsection (3); and
 - (b) has neither:
 - (i) withdrawn that notice; or
 - (ii) voted in support of the resolution.
- (5) A shareholder may demand that the company pay the shareholder the fair value for all of the shares of the company held by that person if:
 - (a) the shareholder:
 - (i) sent the company a notice of objection, subject to subsection (6); and
 - (ii) in the case of an amendment to the company's Memorandum of Incorporation, holds shares of a class that is materially and adversely affected by the amendment;
 - (b) the company has adopted the resolution contemplated in subsection (2); and
 - (c) the shareholder:
 - (i) voted against that resolution; and
 - (ii) has complied with all of the procedural requirements of this section.
- (6) The requirement of subsection (5) (a) (i) does not apply if the company failed to give notice of the meeting, or failed to include in that notice a statement of the shareholders rights under this section.
- (7) A shareholder who satisfies the requirements of subsection (5) may make a demand contemplated in that subsection by delivering a written notice to the company within:
 - (a) 20 business days after receiving a notice under subsection (4); or
 - (b) if the shareholder does not receive a notice under subsection (4), within 20 business days after learning that the resolution has been adopted.
- (8) A demand delivered in terms of subsections (5) to (7) must also be delivered to the Panel, and must state:
 - (a) the shareholder's name and address;
 - (b) the number and class of shares in respect of which the shareholder seeks payment; and
 - (c) a demand for payment of the fair value of those shares.

[Sub-s. (8) amended by s. 103 (a) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]

- (9) A shareholder who has sent a demand in terms of subsections (5) to (8) has no further rights in respect of those shares, other than to be paid their fair value, unless:
- (a) the shareholder withdraws that demand before the company makes an offer under subsection (11), or allows an offer made by the company to lapse, as contemplated in subsection (12) (b);
 - (b) the company fails to make an offer in accordance with subsection (11) and the shareholder withdraws the demand; or
 - (c) the company, by a subsequent special resolution, revokes the adopted resolution that gave rise to the shareholder's rights under this section.
- [Para. (c) substituted by s. 103 (b) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]
- (10) If any of the events contemplated in subsection (9) occur, all of the shareholder's rights in respect of the shares are reinstated without interruption.
- (11) Within five business days after the later of:
- (a) the day on which the action approved by the resolution is effective;
 - (b) the last day for the receipt of demands in terms of subsection (7) (a); or
 - (c) the day the company received a demand as contemplated in subsection (7) (b), if applicable, the company must send to each shareholder who has sent such a demand a written offer to pay an amount considered by the company's directors to be the fair value of the relevant shares, subject to subsection (16), accompanied by a statement showing how that value was determined.
- (12) Every offer made under subsection (11):
- (a) in respect of shares of the same class or series must be on the same terms; and
 - (b) lapses if it has not been accepted within 30 business days after it was made.
- (13) If a shareholder accepts an offer made under subsection (12):
- (a) the shareholder must either in the case of:
 - (i) shares evidenced by certificates, tender the relevant share certificates to the company or the company's transfer agent; or
 - (ii) uncertificated shares, take the steps required in terms of section 53 to direct the transfer of those shares to the company or the company's transfer agent; and
 - (b) the company must pay that shareholder the agreed amount within 10 business days after the shareholder accepted the offer and:
 - (i) tendered the share certificates; or
 - (ii) directed the transfer to the company of uncertificated shares.
- (14) A shareholder who has made a demand in terms of subsections (5) to (8) may apply to a court to determine a fair value in respect of the shares that were the subject of that demand, and an order requiring the company to pay the shareholder the fair value so determined, if the company has:
- (a) failed to make an offer under subsection (11); or
 - (b) made an offer that the shareholder considers to be inadequate, and that offer has not lapsed.
- (15) On an application to the court under subsection (14):
- (a) all dissenting shareholders who have not accepted an offer from the company as at the date of the application must be joined as parties and are bound by the decision of the court;
 - (b) the company must notify each affected dissenting shareholder of the date, place and consequences of the application and of their right to participate in the court proceedings; and

- (c) the court:
 - (i) may determine whether any other person is a dissenting shareholder who should be joined as a party;
 - (ii) must determine a fair value in respect of the shares of all dissenting shareholders, subject to subsection (16);
 - (iii) in its discretion may:
 - (aa) appoint one or more appraisers to assist it in determining the fair value in respect of the shares; or
 - (bb) allow a reasonable rate of interest on the amount payable to each dissenting shareholder from the date the action approved by the resolution is effective, until the date of payment;
 - (iv) may make an appropriate order of costs, having regard to any offer made by the company, and the final determination of the fair value by the court; and
 - (v) must make an order requiring:
 - (aa) the dissenting shareholders to either withdraw their respective demands or to comply with subsection (13) (a); and [Item (aa) substituted by s. 103 (c) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]
 - (bb) the company to pay the fair value in respect of their shares to each dissenting shareholder who complies with subsection (13) (a), subject to any conditions the court considers necessary to ensure that the company fulfils its obligations under this section.
- (15A) At any time before the court has made an order contemplated in subsection (15) (c) (v), a dissenting shareholder may accept the offer made by the company in terms of subsection (11), in which case:
 - (a) that shareholder must comply with the requirements of subsection 13 (a); and
 - (b) the company must comply with the requirements of subsection 13 (b).
 [Sub-s. (15A) inserted by s. 103 (d) of Act No. 3 of 2011.]
- (16) The fair value in respect of any shares must be determined as at the date on which, and time immediately before, the company adopted the resolution that gave rise to a shareholder's rights under this section.
- (17) If there are reasonable grounds to believe that compliance by a company with subsection (13) (b), or with a court order in terms of subsection (15) (c) (v) (bb), would result in the company being unable to pay its debts as they fall due and payable for the ensuing 12 months:
 - (a) the company may apply to a court for an order varying the company's obligations in terms of the relevant subsection; and
 - (b) the court may make an order that:
 - (i) is just and equitable, having regard to the financial circumstances of the company; and
 - (ii) ensures that the person to whom the company owes money in terms of this section is paid at the earliest possible date compatible with the company satisfying its other financial obligations as they fall due and payable.
- (18) If the resolution that gave rise to a shareholder's rights under this section authorised the company to amalgamate or merge with one or more other companies, such that the company whose shares are the subject of a demand in terms of this section has ceased to exist, the obligations of that company under this section are obligations of the successor to that company resulting from the amalgamation or merger.

- (19) For greater certainty, the making of a demand, tendering of shares and payment by a company to a shareholder in terms of this section do not constitute a distribution by the company, or an acquisition of its shares by the company within the meaning of section 48, and therefore are not subject to:
- (a) the provisions of that section; or
 - (b) the application by the company of the solvency and liquidity test set out in section 4.
- (20) Except to the extent:
- (a) expressly provided in this section; or
 - (b) that the Panel rules otherwise in a particular case, a payment by a company to a shareholder in terms of this section does not obligate any person to make a comparable offer under section 125 to any other person.
